Sponsorship Opportunity Guide

2022

Welcome

Dear Members and Friends,

2022 is shaping up to be an exciting year! In addition to serving as the host city and chapter for the AIA Conference on Architecture 2022 (A'22) with 17,000+ projected attendees from around the country, we are also looking forward to welcoming members back for more in-person programs and events.

Becoming an AIA Chicago sponsor not only demonstrates your support for Chicago's architectural community, but also provides your company with unprecedented exposure to AIA Chicago's 4,000 members and 10,000+ social media followers.

You'll find sponsorship opportunities of many levels and across the spectrum of AIA Chicago's programs and events – including Designight 2022, the premier architectural celebration of the year.

Whether you're interested in reaching a wide audience or a specific subset of our membership closely tied to your specific industry, valuable and meaningful benefits await.

Our new 1869Circle program provides unprecedented recognition and all-year visibility – at every event and program – for those member firms and affiliate members who invest a cumulative amount of $10,000 or more in AIA Chicago sponsorships and advertising on an annual basis. You'll find details at the end of the guide.

We look forward to helping you position your company's work in front of AIA Chicago's members, industry partners, and future clients.

All the best,

Jen Masengarb, Assoc. AIA
